good intentions—it is learned that Mr. Allderdice had been unfortunate in real estate transactions, and though be had struggled hard, was unable to meet demands upon him for money due pressing creditors. It is not true, as was widely stated yesterday, that Messts. Grubbs & Williams have sent a man with a warrant to Philadelphia to arrest him. On the contrary, they are inclined to believe that he will return here and do his best to satisfy his creditors. One of Fifty dollars' surety required for three their firm, who is now in Philadelphia, ex-pected to see Mr. Allderdice yesterday and arrive at some understanding with him. Mr. Allderdice has quite a large amount of property standing in his name, but most of it is encumbered. Had his real estate investments proved successful those conversant with his affairs think he might have paid a stone-cutter, situated on an alley near nearly all he owes. As it is, nothing short of a thorough investigation will develop the exact state of his assets and liabilities. Mr. Allderdice came here soon after the war and made very large investments in the very easily with two buckets of water when kins on systematic beneficence and ministe lumber business, but was unsuccessful. He was appointed City Auditor by a military Governor of the State, and was in 1870 elected to the office for one year by the people. At the next election he was defeated. He formed his connection with the bankruptcy business while he was Auditor.

> RICHMOND, August 6, 1875. At a called meeting of the Tobacco Association held this morning the president in very appropriate terms announced the death of one of our oldest and most esteemed members, P. D. MCKINNEY.

Esq. Mr. James A. Scott next spoke in glowing terms James Thompson and Littleberry Rock, $1 of the deceased, and moved that a committee of three be appointed to draft resolutions suitable to the occasion.

The Chair appointed the following committee Messrs. James A. Scott, William D. Gibson, and William J. Yarbrough. The committee, after retiring, returned and presented, through their chairman, Mr. Gibson, the following resolutions, which he prefaced by a few suitable and feeling remarks, which were unanimously adopted: Whereas it has pleased Almighty God in his wise providence again to visit this Association and to remove from among us one of the oldest and most esteemed members, and while we bow with reverence to this dispensation, we desire to place upon record our high appreciation of the great worth of our departed friend and associate; therefore Resolved, That in this dispensation of Providence we feel that the shaft of death could not have fallen on one for whom a more universal feeling of respect and esteem was entertained; that his business intercourse was invariably marked by all the cha-right merchant. Resolved. That we shall ever cherish a kind recollection of one whose genial manners, gentle feellags, and chivalrous nature greatly endeared him to a large circle of admiring friends.

Resolved, That we tender his surviving partner and his beseaved family our warmest sympathy in this the dark hour of their bereavement, and that the secretary be requested to furnish them a copy of these proceedings, and be published in the daily papers.

Resolved, That as a further evidence of our attachment to our friend this Association will attend his funeral in a body.

Ireland. THE O'CONNELL CENTENARY-THE LORD MAYOR

OF DUBLIN PRESENT. DUBLIN, August 6 .- The banquet last night given by the Lord Mayor of Dublin in honor of the memory of O'Connell was a brilliant affair.

A dispatch was received from the Pope giving blessing to all persons assisting at the centenary celebration. The health of the Pope was proposed first and the Queen's next. The latter was received with loud cheering. A toast to the memory of O'Connell was responded to by the grandson of the Liberator and by the Archbishop of Machale, who said: "England was once under the Government of France, and yearned for deliverance from thraldom. It is not strange that Ireland should now yearn for home government as did England of old."
